

My Inspirational Quotes

“The magic of a computer lies in its ability to become almost anything you can imagine, as long as you can explain exactly what that is.”

“With the right programming, a computer can become a theater, a musical instrument, a reference book, a chess opponent.
No other entity in the world except a human being has such an adaptable, universal nature.”

Engineers don't think the glass is half empty or half full. They just think the glass needs to be redesigned.
